

CCG HQ Bremen is building up the top management team

Effective January 02nd, 2006, we announce the appointment of our new Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Achaz von Quistorp.

For the continued expansion and growth of the CCG worldwide network and to strengthen our management organization focussing on financial controlling and mergers & acquisitions, Mr. Achaz von Quistorp (42) started on January 02nd, 2007, as CCG's Chief Financial Officer.

Mr. von Quistorp has a long and substantial experience in financial controlling and business development / mergers & acquisitions due to his varied management positions in well known and global companies also in the logistics business. His last engagement was with one of Europe's largest pharmaceutical wholesale and retail company which is listed on the German stock exchange. Mr. von Quistorp is located at our Headquarters in Bremen, Germany.

CCG is focusing on building a healthy development and expansion strategy. A few weeks ago a joint venture with our Latin American partners was completed. CCG as major shareholder will soon open 5 new perishable offices in Peru, Ecuador and Bolivia. As a result of the strong regional development in Latin America Mr. Pablo Nunez was appointed as CCG's Regional CFO Latin America as of December 01st, 2006.

In December 2006 CCG raised its share in Rungis Express AG, the leading German gourmet food trading company, from 72% to 100%, enabling the CCG management to have full responsibility and commitment to realising our mission.
