

CCG AMS B.V. announces start of own warehouse activities in De Lier

Effective May 01st, 2007, network member CCG AMS B.V. has started operations of CCG Logistics B.V. - a 2800 square metre warehouse and handling facility.

With four state of the art coolers this facility is perfectly tailored for inbound and outbound perishable seafreight logistics. The Branch Manager of this new activity of the Cool Chain Group in The Netherlands will be Mr. Rob de Jong, a very experienced and well respected logistics specialist.

As the location in De Lier is only 20 minutes away from the Port of Rotterdam and located in the middle of the agricultural area of The Netherlands, the Westland area, the services offered will be fulfilling the needs of all companies active in the perishable trade.

Our facility offers the following services:

- 2,750 square meters for physical handling
- Coldrooms, computer controlled
- 9 (off)loading docks
- Handling LCL/FCL oceanfreight
- Handling of airfreight shipments, all over Europe
- HACCP and ISO certified
- Phytosanitary Checkpoint
